

How much my heart does love to sing ...

1 An East Anglian Folk Song Suite – Douglas Coombes

- i The candlelight fishermen (Norfolk)
- ii Windy old weather (Norfolk)
- iii May Day carol (Cambridgeshire)
- iv The jolly carter (Essex)
- v Bushes and briars (Essex)
- vi John Barleycorn (Bedfordshire)
- vii The shooting of his dear (Essex)
- viii The old man from Lee (Essex)
- ix Down by the riverside (Essex)
- x Robin a-Thrush (Suffolk)

2 A tapestry of British Song – Douglas Coombes

- i If music be the food of love
(Words: Colonel Heveningham / Music: Henry Purcell)
- ii Turpin hero (England)
- iii Scarborough Fair (England)
- iv The stuttering lover (Ireland)
- v The Sally Gardens (Ireland)
- vi Song of a country girl (Wales)
- vii David of the white rock (Wales)
- viii Mairi's wedding (Scotland)
- ix Eriskay love lilt (Scotland)
- x Oliver Cromwell (England)

3 How much my heart does love to sing

(Words: David Self/Music: Douglas Coombes)